Episcopal Students Named Jacksonville Exchange Club Students of the Year

April 22, 2008, Jacksonville, Florida—Episcopal seniors Micha'le Simmons '08 and Greg Kennedy '08 have been named the Jacksonville Exchange Club's Students of the Year. The honor earned them $2000 college scholarships each and a plaque to commemorate the achievement.

Selection of the Students of the Year was made from among the Exchange Club's 2007-2008 school year Students of the Month recipients. Simmons and Kennedy met the requirements by being named Jacksonville Exchange Club's Episcopal Students of the Month for November 2007. Kennedy and Simmons now have the opportunity to advance to district competition, and ultimately, the opportunity to vie for the prestigious National Student of the Year Award.

This Exchange Club program recognizes industrious high-school students who attain high levels of scholastic achievement, community involvement and leadership; it not only rewards outstanding young people, but also provides an incentive for other students to strive for equally high achievement.

For more information about Simmons or Kennedy, please contact the communications office. For more information about the Exchange Club, visit www.floridadistrictexchange.com.

###

The mission of Episcopal High School is to provide a superior college-preparatory education in an environment marked by high expectation, Christian nurture and social diversity. Through a balanced program of academics, arts and athletics, Episcopal's faculty seeks to instill in each student intellectual growth, character development, responsible leadership and a commitment to community service.
